

SENATOR MURPHY: Would you care to divulge it to the rest of these people.

SENATOR CAVANAUGH: What Senator Murphy is referring to is that my wife delivered an 8 pound 7 ounce baby girl, yesterday morning.

PRESIDENT: Hey, that is good news, congratulations.

SENATOR CAVANAUGH: With beautiful red hair I might add.

PRESIDENT: Oh really, excellent. All right the Chair has the pleasure this morning to call to the attention of the body that seated in the north balcony we have 50 students from Saratoga School here in Lincoln. They are from Senator Fowler's district. Senator Fowler you have 50 students from Saratoga school up here in the north balcony here this morning. Their instructors are I believe Mrs. Miller, Mrs. Kaziol, Mrs. Jones and Mrs. Nelson. We are delighted to have you here as visitors at the Nebraska Unicameral Legislature and we hope that you remember your trip down here because this is where the action is in Lincoln, Nebraska today. OK, now then we have any petitions or memorials.

CLERK: Read communication from Governor, and opinions from the Attorney General (see pages 228-231). Report of registered lobbyists (see pages 231 in Legislative Journal). Communication from the Executive Office (page 232). Read Select Committee Reports regarding LB593, LR8, LB377, LB432, LB565, LB490. Correctly engrossed 212, 508 and 569. Reference Committee report read. Notice of committee hearings.

PRESIDENT: Do you have any other notices of committee hearings or reports?

CLERK: No, that is all.

PRESIDENT: Now we have in the north balcony joining the children from Saratoga School we have 21 students from Clare McPhee School here in Lincoln, and they are from Senator Luedtke's district. Senator Luedtke you might just wave to the kids up there so that they will know. Their instructor is Mrs. Bunge. It is our pleasure to have you here today today as visitors to the Nebraska Unicameral Legislature. Are there resolutions on the desk?

CLERK: None Mr. President.

PRESIDENT: Do we have any bills for introduction?

CLERK: Yes.

PRESIDENT: Clerk will read the title of the bills.

(end belt #1)